Holy Communion, by Ann Weems

Eat. Drink. Remember who I am.

*Eat. Drink. Remember
who I am
so you can remember
who you are.*

*Eat. Drink. Remember
who I am
so you can remember
who you are
and tell the others.*

*Eat. Drink. Remember
who I am
so you can remember
who you are
and tell the others
so that all God's people can live
in communion...
in holy communion.*

Introit

“Not My Will, But Thine”

Call to Worship

*Hymn #93

“Ah, Holy Jesus”

Herzliebster Jesu

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that so often our discipleship has been weak.
When we have failed to serve as Jesus served;

forgive us. (silent confession)

When we have failed to love one another as Jesus loves us;

forgive us. (silent confession)

When we have been happy to proclaim our devotion to Jesus with our lips and then denied him by our actions;

forgive us. (silent confession)

Merciful God, empower us by your Spirit to be steady and true to you in every time of trial; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

*Assurance of Pardon

Prayer for Illumination

Hebrew Bible Reading

Exodus 12: 1 – 4, 11 – 14

Anthem

“Behold Him in Dark Gethsemane”

Gospel Reading:

John 13: 1 – 17, 31b – 35

Meditation:

“And it Was Communion”

*Hymn #86

“When We Are Tempted to Deny Your Son”

Psalm 22

Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper

Invitation to the Table

Prayer of Great Thanksgiving and the Lord’s Prayer

The Lord be with you .

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Great and Mighty, Vulnerable and Merciful God, we praise you, and we should praise you. You created us and all that we see and know. You are the Creator. You have given us bread and the fruit of the vine, the earth that has grown and nourished the wheat, and cool water to grow the grapes. You have blessed the hands that knead and bake.

You have made each of us in your image, in your love. You have claimed us, adopted us all as your children, caring for our every need, in every way we let you. Each time we give in to our wants instead of Yours, you show us how to release ourselves from bondage. Throughout time you have been the way of liberation, the way of love. In Egypt, you sent Moses to guide us to the promised land. In the wilderness, you fed us manna in the wilderness, and brought us to a land flowing with milk and honey.

When we forgot that You had done these things, you did not give up on us, instead, you sent prophets to remind us. When we refused to understand that compassion was what You wanted from us, you sent Jesus to be the most clear pronouncement of Your way for all time. Jesus showed us what it means to obey You. Jesus showed us what it means to love our neighbors. We’ve been there when he prayed and healed and cried, and in all things, rely on you, and we’ve seen Jesus get taken over by our fear, crucified by our denial.

When we wander and wonder, Jesus’ life, given for us, becomes our manna. Through his suffering, Jesus has transformed this cup into the cup of salvation. When we eat this bread and this cup, bring us into communion with You and into the promise of eternal life.

Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these your gifts. By your Spirit unite us with the living Christ and with all who seek to be his disciples, that we may be one in ministry in every place. Accept our lives as we offer them. Give us strength to serve you, until the promised day of resurrection, when, with the redeemed of all the ages, we will feast and celebrate with You. We open our hearts and begin our journey to your table, we pray as Jesus taught,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Communion of the People

We celebrate communion today by means of intinction, meaning “to dip.”

You are invited to come forward, receive the bread, dip it in the juice, and partake as you are ready, returning to your seat for a time of prayer and contemplation.

If you are unable to come forward for communion,

please let an usher know and we will bring communion to you.

Gluten-free elements are available for those who need them.

Prayer After Communion

*Hymn #102

“Were you There?”

Were You There

*Stripping of the Church

Recognizing the darkness that fell over the world as Jesus Christ was crucified, in the final verses of the hymn the church will be stripped of its most significant symbols.

Afterwards, we are asked to depart in silence to contemplate what is ahead.
