

Stone Chippings Newsletter March 2022

Coming to Terms with History:

Who is Old Stone Presbyterian Church? Over the course of the next five newsletters, I would like to introduce you to what are considered the five Developmental Tasks of interim ministry, and the first has to do with self-identification. Transitional ministry is by its own nature a time of movement. Churches say goodbye to previous pastors, begin the process for calling a new pastor, and perhaps most importantly, begin to formulate a vision moving forward as the church membership itself. But in order for us to know where we are heading in the future, we first need to know where we have been. If we were to create a map of Old Stone over the past nearly 239 years, what would we see? Were there events that we look fondly back upon? Were there events that were extremely challenging? How are we feeling about the previous pastor's departure? These are all important questions to ask as we come to terms with our history.

And just as important, we are asked to identify where we are currently, and how we got here in the first place. One common observation with churches today is that many of the members still identify the church with their childhood, or when they first arrived as newcomers years ago. The reality, however, is that a church is an evolving organism, just like anything else. New members come and go, new experiences create imprints on the DNA of the congregation, and new leadership leads the congregation to new places. So, who is Old Stone today? What has changed in the last, say, twenty years? What has changed in the last five years, or two years since the start of the pandemic? What do we do well today?

As I have mentioned previously, the Session has started on the formal steps of this process with the drafting of a Mission Statement that will be used to guide our Pastor Nominating Committee in the months ahead. But I also want to extend an invitation for your input as well. As we reflect on where we have come from, we'd love to hear from you. Feel free to stop in, write a note, or give any of us at the office or on Session a call, and share your story of who Old Stone has been, and who we are today. Together, we are Old Stone Presbyterian Church, and we have a wonderful story to share.

In Christ,

Pastor Jeff

Presbyterian Women "Together In Service" Project:

This project of the Old Stone Presbyterian Women initially supported initiatives throughout the world where needs were identified—for example, cotton bandaging and netting for beds in third world countries, layettes for infants in parts of the world supported by Presbyterian missionaries. During the 1980's and 90's, Jewell Dolan was singlehandedly sewing items or purchasing and sending the requested items where the Presbyterian Women liaison directed. Later, this committee became a two-person effort to ensure that there would be continuity in completing the project initiated during the program year.

In recent years, the committee members have worked with local agencies to assist with needs here in Greenbrier County. For several years, warm winter coats, hats, and gloves were purchased and distributed with the help of United Way. Another year needed supplies (spiral notebooks, pens/pencils, underwear, etc.) were purchased for distribution by the Communities in School liaison at Greenbrier East High School. The previous two years, we worked with Children's Home Society in supplying needed items for children housed at their facility in western Greenbrier County.

Does this ministry "tug at your heart"? Your interest and participation in the ministry, is certainly welcomed! #### Food Locker Monthly Distribution: Calling All Volunteers!!

The Lewisburg/Fairlea Food locker is a volunteer organization sponsored by area churches. It is located in Old Stone's Fellowship Hall, and conducts monthly distributions on the 3rd Saturday of each month from 8-10am. Each year, several thousand of bags of food are distributed to residents of Lewisburg, Fairlea, Caldwell area who financially qualify.

A single individual receives one bag of groceries; a couple two bags and a family of three or more three bags. Each bag contains frozen meat, canned goods such as soup, green beans, corn, kidney beans or ravioli, dry goods such as cereal, oatmeal, beans, and macaroni and cheese. Normally food is distributed on the second Saturday of each month. Volunteers from a participating church distribute to Lewisburg Manor, Tabor Towers and Morgan Manor which are residences for elderly and disabled members of our community. All other individuals walk into the Old Stone Fellowship Hall to receive food.

Bill and Gloria Martin are the coordinators and have a wonderful team who help monthly. In addition, participating churches take turns monthly helping deliver to Lewisburg Manor, Tabor Towers and Morgan Manor, which are residences for elderly and disabled members of our community. There are usually 125-150 bags to be delivered to the 3 residences and we typically need 6 trucks, and at least 8 volunteers to help load & unload, and go door to door to deliver the bags at each facility.

This year, Old Stone is doing distribution March 19 and November 19. WE NEED VOLUNTEERS!

Volunteers who have a truck are a plus --but we are glad to have everyone willing to help out! (And, by the way this is a GREAT family project!)

If you cannot help in March please save November 19 on your calendar to help the next time!

It's not a hard or long job – volunteers meet in Fellowship Hall Saturday morning of the distribution at 7:30am and are often finished with deliveries by 9:30am. * Masks are required for everyone and all safety precautions observed.

You know the saying: "Many hands make light work!!" If interested, please text Molly @304-667-4362 or email @ mollyscarb@gmail.com

SAVE YOUR KROGER PICKUP BAGS PLEASE -- These are ideal for the Food Locker - Leave them in Fellowship Hall or if you need pick up let the church office know.

Greenbrier Community Care Corps (GCCC) Nonmedical Supportive Services:

We are pleased to announce the launch of the Greenbrier Community Care Corps (GCCC) local model! GCCC is a pilot project administered by WVSOM Center for Rural and Community Health (CRCH), in collaboration with the Greenbrier County Health Alliance (GCHA). GCCC is a grant funded program that links volunteers in the community to provide nonmedical supportive services to Greenbrier County residents who are at least 60 years of age, adults with disabilities, and/or their caregivers, with the goal to support independent living, reduce caregiver stress and burdens, and to reduce feelings of loneliness and isolation.

This is a free program to serve Greenbrier County residents. Volunteers must be 18 years or older and submit to a background check, which includes fingerprinting, as well as onboarding and training, before being linked to provide services. If you want to register directly, you may use our online system located here for volunteers: http://bttr.im/9mpb5, or located here for those that want to receive services: http://bttr.im/6lru7.
