

Old Stone Presbyterian Church
Called Session Meeting
Friday, March 1, 2024
Meeting Via Zoom

The Session of the Old Stone Presbyterian Church met for a Called Session meeting on Friday, March 1, 2024. The meeting was called to order at 5:30 p.m. and opened with prayer by the Moderator, Rev. Julie Olt.

There was not a quorum in attendance so no voting could take place. The meeting was for discussion only.

In attendance were: Moderator, Rev. Julie Olt; Clerk of Session, Nancy Smallenberger; Ruling Elders: Andy Kelso, Amy Meadows, Jennifer Runyon and Gary Williams; and guest: Rev. Schuyler Olt.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the ramifications of an advertisement that was in the newspaper this week by a candidate for office, representing the Republican party, who is planning to host a “tour” event at Old Stone Presbyterian Church. This is in direct conflict with policies for churches to host political events, which can result in the church losing their non-profit status. Following discussion by those in attendance, it was decided that Rev. Olt, along with Jim Rowe, if the way be clear, to contact Gordon Campbell, president of the local Republican Club and member of OSPC, to make him, and the group, aware of the issues associated with this event.

The meeting was then closed with prayer by Rev. Sky Olt.
